Prayer to St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church

O glorious Saint Joseph you were chosen by God to be the foster-father of Jesus, the Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and head of the Holy Family.
You have been chosen by Christ's Vicar as the Heavenly Patron and Protector of the Church founded by Christ. Therefore, with the greatest confidence, we implore your powerful intercession for the whole Church today.

Guide in a special manner,
our Holy Father and all bishops, priests, deacons, and all members of the Body of Christ who try to live the Gospel message.
Be our Protector amid the trials and tribulations of this life. Obtain for us great purity of heart and a fervent love for the spiritual life.

Grant that, after your example, all our actions may be directed to the greater glory of God, in union with the Sacred Heart of Jesus the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
and your own paternal heart.
Finally, pray for us that we may share in the peace and joy of your holy death, in the company of Jesus and Mary. Amen.

Sacrificial Bread and Wine

is offered in Memory of

Anthony Zefferese

on behalf of Rosemary and Frank Mollo

Please pray for our Faithful Departed

Eternal rest grant unto them O'Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace.
May their soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, Rest in peace, Amen

Miraculous Medal Novena takes place on the 8:30 am Mass.

World Youth Day Reflection from Francene Olegario

“ Truthfully, I did not know what to expect from this year’s World Youth Day pilgrimage and was skeptical as to how this experience would leave a significant impact on my life.

However, I am grateful to say that it was a profound experience that has led me to gain new perspectives and insights that I believe have deepened my understanding of my faith and my relationship with God as well as with those around me.

Personally, I had been struggling with my faith the older I became as the reality of the world seemed to become much more transparent as I matured. Constant reminders of corruption, greed, selfishness, bigotry, hatred, and death as well as personal hardships made it difficult to solidify what it meant to be a practicing Catholic amidst the messiness.

However, at the culmination of World Youth Day after we had trekked in the sweltering heat to the open field, it was to my surprise the most peaceful I had felt in a while. I remember for a moment just sitting and closing my eyes in the chaos reminding myself that Jesus had also experienced what it was like to be human. He too experienced hunger, fatigue, anger, betrayal, and grief and had witnessed horrors beyond our imagination under the rule of the Roman Empire. He was especially tortured and put to death for refusing to conform even if it meant saving His own life.

However, despite witnessing and experiencing all of this, He persistently displayed genuine acts of love and compassion towards ALL He came across. And so, even though I had felt fatigued, achy, and frustrated that day, I believe there was this peace I felt knowing that I was not alone in my struggles and that even though the world may be as bleak as it seems, we as humans have the ability to be loving and compassionate to ALL we come across.

As Pope Francis had said during World Youth Day, “There is room for EVERYONE in the Church,” and I pray that even at times we as the youth feel discouraged, we remain steadfast in understanding what it means to share God’s unconditional love as Jesus did. “

First Reading:

If I tell the wicked, "O wicked one, you shall surely die," and you do not speak out to dissuade the wicked from his way, the wicked shall die for his guilt, but I will hold you responsible for his death. (Ez 33:8)

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. (Ps 95)
