Prayer to St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church

O glorious Saint Joseph
you were chosen by God to be the foster-father of Jesus, the Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary,
and head of the Holy Family.
You have been chosen by Christ's Vicar as the Heavenly Patron and Protector of the Church founded by Christ. Therefore, with the greatest confidence, we implore your powerful intercession for the whole Church today.

Guide in a special manner,
our Holy Father and all bishops,
priests, deacons, and all members of the Body of Christ who try to live the Gospel message.
Be our Protector amid the trials and tribulations of this life. Obtain for us great purity of heart and a fervent love for the spiritual life.

Grant that, after your example,
all our actions may be directed to the greater glory of God, in union with the Sacred Heart of Jesus
the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
and your own paternal heart.
Finally, pray for us that we may share in the peace and joy of your holy death, in the company of Jesus and Mary. Amen.

September 3, 2023 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hi, my name is Annika Maniego, and this month I had the opportunity to attend my 3rd World Youth Day in Lisbon, Portugal. I attended my first WYD in 2013 in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil and my second WYD in 2016 in Krakow, Poland. Each WYD has been a beautifully, wildly different experience, and this one was no different. As one of the older pilgrims in the group, I was tasked with helping to chaperone the group, most of whom had never been to WYD. Due to the responsibilities of this role, I found myself much more attuned to the stresses of being a leader as opposed to the spiritual aspect of WYD. That is, until our final day of Catechesis. You may have read about my fellow pilgrims' experiences with this, but the beautiful part of our faith is not only the universality of it but also the personal journey each of us has to go through to end up in the same place.

Our final day of Catechesis consisted of talks from bishops and priests from around the world, along with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Maybe it was the pure exhaustion of only having 4 hours of sleep each of the prior five nights or the 4-6 mile walks everyday, but this day I was finally able to calm myself and be in the moment. I heard stories of the power of our faith, Penance, & forgiveness, and was truly moved by each of them. Between each of these stories the entire Church would sing in unison for praise and worship. While I used to attend Praise and Worship events monthly, it had been years since I had attended an event of this stature. However, even with the passage of time, in that church in Lisbon, Portugal, it felt as if time and geographical location ceased to exist. I let go and let God in for the first time in what felt like an eternity. I laid down my burdens and felt the Holy Spirit enter as I prayed in unison with nearly 1,000 pilgrims from around the globe.

I am so grateful to belong to the Holy Family community who has continued to support me as I have made my way from Baptism up to today. I am eternally thankful to each person who has supported us financially and spiritually, especially as I have been able to experience WYD three times now. I recognize the privilege of this and hope you know that you were in all of our prayers throughout the week of WYD and continue to be in mine. I would like to thank my fellow pilgrims for supporting me during the last two years of fundraisers & events and being on this pilgrimage as I navigated us through some tough situations. It was truly a joy to watch as you experienced your first WYD, and I hope this is not your last. Finally, I would like to give thanks, in a special way, to my parents. Thank you for the gift of Catholic education for 18 years, and thank you for paving the way for my faith to grow.

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time September 3, 2023

First Reading:

Whenever I speak, I must cry out, violence and outrage is my message; the word of the LORD has brought me derision and reproach all the day. (Jer 20:8)

Psalm:

My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God. (Ps 63)

Second Reading:

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. (Rom 12:1)

Gospel:

“Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.

For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.”

(Mt 16:24-25)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.
